D3Corp Appoints Jay Bosley to Chief Operating Officer

OCEAN CITY, MD (August 15, 2011) – D3Corp, Ocean City's largest web technology firm, has announced the appointment of Jay Bosley to the position of Chief Operating Officer.

Mr. Bosley joins D3Corp with over 12 years of technology and organizational operations experience. Bosley comes from the Bel Air, MD area and has experience in leadership roles with Baltimore-based companies ranging from $14M to $86M in gross revenue.

"The addition of Jay to the D3 team leverages over a decade of operations experience and executive leadership to help streamline D3 processes and internal functionality to better serve our clients and position D3 for growth," stated D3Corp President John Gehrig.

Bosley added, "I am very pleased to join a proven leader in the region with strong technical and business teams and a history of exceptional customer service. I'm looking forward to working closely with our clients and the business community to assure that D3 is best positioned to serve our existing clients and best prepared for growth to serve new clients."

Bosley joined D3Corp in August, and relocated his family to Ocean City, MD at that time. He is currently working out of the new D3 office headquarters located off of Route 50, across from the Ocean City Chamber.

About D3Corp

D3Corp has been serving the Delmarva community and its customers for over 15 years. D3Corp is a full service web development and e-marketing firm specializing in custom web site design, database programming, E-commerce solutions, email marketing, mobile websites and apps and social marketing.

With clients from all over the United States, the company offers innovative, creative, flexible and cost-effective web site designs for corporations, organizations, hotels, restaurants, professionals and individuals. D3Corp can create websites from scratch or give a fresh look or additional functionality to an existing website. D3Corp also manages online stores for clients to sell their products and services to people all over the world.

The company also operates its own hotel reservation system, used by over 100 hotels and motels. While using D3Corp's hotel reservation website, travelers to destinations such as Ocean City can earn free vouchers to local attractions and restaurants, thereby helping the community with the promotion of more local businesses.
